On 3, 4 and 5 February, at the Retromobile Show in Paris, Artcurial Motorcars will present the largest French sale in the history of this discipline with estimates totalling over 80 million euros !

Comprising some 230 collectors' vehicles, half of which will be offered at no reserve, curious visitors, enthusiasts and buyers will find the entire history of transport on view on the 5000 m² stand in hall 2/2 at Portes de Versailles.

With the star of this auction, the Ferrari 250LM, capable of achieving over 25 million euros, this 2023 edition promises to be quite exceptional!

PARIS – With three full days of spectacular sales hosted by Hervé Poulain Matthieu Lamoure and Pierre Novikoff trio this year, visitors will find an array of exceptional automobiles, with illustrious histories and prestigious racing records.

- 8 complete private collections including a Facel Véga Collection at no reserve.
- Vehicles spanning the entire history of transport from a horse-drawn omnibus to Renault's flying saucer, a concept designed in 1992 predicting the vehicle of the 24th century !
- Popular classics from the entirely original 1935 Citroën 7C Traction to the Citroën 2CV with a mileage of 140 km from new.
- Coachbuilders' cars from the Delage D8 120 Cabriolet Vanvooren ordered new by the Aga Khan III to the most recent Mercedes Benz 500 SGS Gullwing AMG from 1984.
- Competition cars with the extraordinary Bart Rosman collection, featuring his two Bugattis, the extremely rare Bugatti 35C and the Type 43 with prestigious provenance, as well as the 1951 Ferrari 340 America Barchetta Touring, which took part in the Le Mans 24 Hours in 1951, among others. In addition, the Porsche 962 C which finished 5th at Suzuka in 1991, as well as the Mercedes-Benz 500 SLC Safari entered in the WRC by the factory which took part in the Bandama Rally in 1979 and 1980.

«²During Rétromobile, Paris will resonate with the sound of engines and an automotive fervour that unites us all. Through this shared passion, we can protect our precious motoring heritage and create memories to enjoy together. This exceptional sale featuring 230 Automobiles will be an opportunity to pay tribute to the history of transport and to continue placing France at the centre of this international market.»
